LOVE DEATH FUTURE

Each time your brother uses one of these words, including synonyms and derivations, announce you see an incoming Tunnel. If you're announcing the third Tunnel, a Malfunction must follow suit.

DIFFERENCES

Before you begin playing, circle one option for every row of the Me table.

During each scene, offer your brother the Fateful Choice and circle his answer in the Him table.

Once you've noted the third difference between the Me and Him table, give the other player your Telegram as soon as the scene is over (do not read it yourself). If the fifth scene ends before you reach three differences, give your brother the Missive (do not read it yourself). Once either message has been read aloud, the game is over. Linger for a few seconds more, before taking your leave without ever speaking.

Note

Your thoughts go to the Revolution. It's hard to focus on the present. Scene after scene, it gets worse.
